

A TRIO of teenage bowlers returned in triumph from the Scottish Young Bowlers Association national championship at Balgreen in Edinburgh at the weekend.

Alison Jenkins, Vikki Leishman and Scott Penn (above) from Carronshore and Carron Bowling Club lifted the national triples title.

They defeated Whitefield Bowling Club from Cambuslang 9-3 in the Under-16 final.

Another local pairing did well at Balgreen. S. McBride and G. Flynn of the Grangemouth and Talbot Bowling Club reached the quarter-final of the pairs event, having won their section of round-robin matches.
